

The impact of a training program in home economics for facilitators child development centers on their performance in teaching in some of Upper Egypt Governorates

This research aims to develop the skills facilitators in child centers in some Upper Egypt Governorates - sample Seat- associated with home economy to be able to teach subjects in home economics program, and provide them some basic teaching skills necessary for them.

Included research sample, facilitators lists taught at the child centers for community development associations affiliated to the CARE International governorates of Aswan, Sohag, Minya and their number (45) soft from different disciplines and scientific levels, and it was their distribution as follows :(11 soft in Aswan), (16 soft province Sohag), (18 soft Minya) province.

Limited training facilitators on basic skills in teaching and training on some of the main topics in the program which they already teaching and associated with home economic science

This research was carried on both analytical description in analysis of home economic program content which designed to the facilitators to teach it for children centers according to international CARE authority, and experimental method in training program application.

From the most important results was gaining them and developing their teaching performance of the facilitators skills and teaching skills needed in teaching of home economics for mothers in children centers followed to international CARE authority..